

Tutti Flutti is Utrecht's (the Netherlands) only flute ensemble and consists of amateur flutists of all ages. Under the artistic leadership of conductor Rogier de Pijper, Tutti Flutti plays classical compositions, flute choir repertoire and contemporary pieces, frequently performing at local venues in and around Utrecht.

Tutti Flutti regularly branches out to other genres such as film scores and Latin and loves collaborating with artists from other disciplines.

In 2027, we will celebrate our 40-year anniversary!
