

The Barcelona Flute Orchestra was founded in 2005 by Vicens Prats, principal flute of the Orchestre de Paris, with the aim of promoting an original musical ensemble in our country. T he orchestra brings together flautists from diverse backgrounds and explores a wide range of sounds using the entire flute family, from piccolo to bass flute. Over the years, the orchestra has performed varied programs ranging from classical masterpieces to contemporary works, including multimedia performances that combining music and visuals. In 2018, the orchestra toured Tokyo as part of an exchange with the Japanese Ensemble Musica Cuore, and in 2023 it participated in a European flute orchestra convention in Aveiro, Portugal.

Since 2023, the orchestra has been conducted by Daniel Hurtado.

