

Founded in 2006 by the association A travers La Flûte, the ensemble Les Flûtes d'Azur brings together about fifteen of the most talented flutists in the Alpes-Maritimes region. Its varied repertoire ranges from classical to jazz, including world music. The ensemble performs at numerous festivals throughout France and Europe. They regularly accompany renowned soloists such as M. Larrieu, J. Choi, M. Demin, H. Von Kogelenberg, S. François, S. Careddu, and F. Renggli...

The “Les Flûtes d'Azur” orchestra also participated in the “International Flute Orchestra Competition” in Freiburg, organized by DGF, in Germany in March 2013, and won first prize.

The orchestra “Les Flûtes d'Azur” commissioned new compositions for upcoming productions. As a result, Italian composer Francesco Santucci wrote the piece “Windtalkers” for the orchestra.
