

Stefan De Schepper started to play the piano at the age of four. He obtained his master degree at the Royal Conservatoire in Antwerp and won prizes in several competitions, including Bach competition, Cantabile competition, Belfius Classics and Durllet competition. He also obtained the De Vries-Tolkowsky and the Annie Rutzky award.

He has performed with La Chapelle de la Lorraine, I Solisti del Vento and the New Flemish Symphony Orchestra. He has given concerts in Europe, Mexico and the USA and made recordings for national and international radio and television.

Together with Peter Verhoyen (piccolo) he recorded several full cd's covering existing and newly composed works for piccolo and piano.

He accompanies the flute and piccolo classes at the Royal Conservatoire in Antwerp. As a piano accompanist he also works for the International Flute Seminar Bruges, the Academie voor Muziek en Woord of Hemiksem and the Kunsthumaniora in Brussels.
